About the Norwegian Forest Owners' Federation

The biggest and the main forest owner organisation in Norway. It was founded in 1913. Owned by 37 000 forest owners.

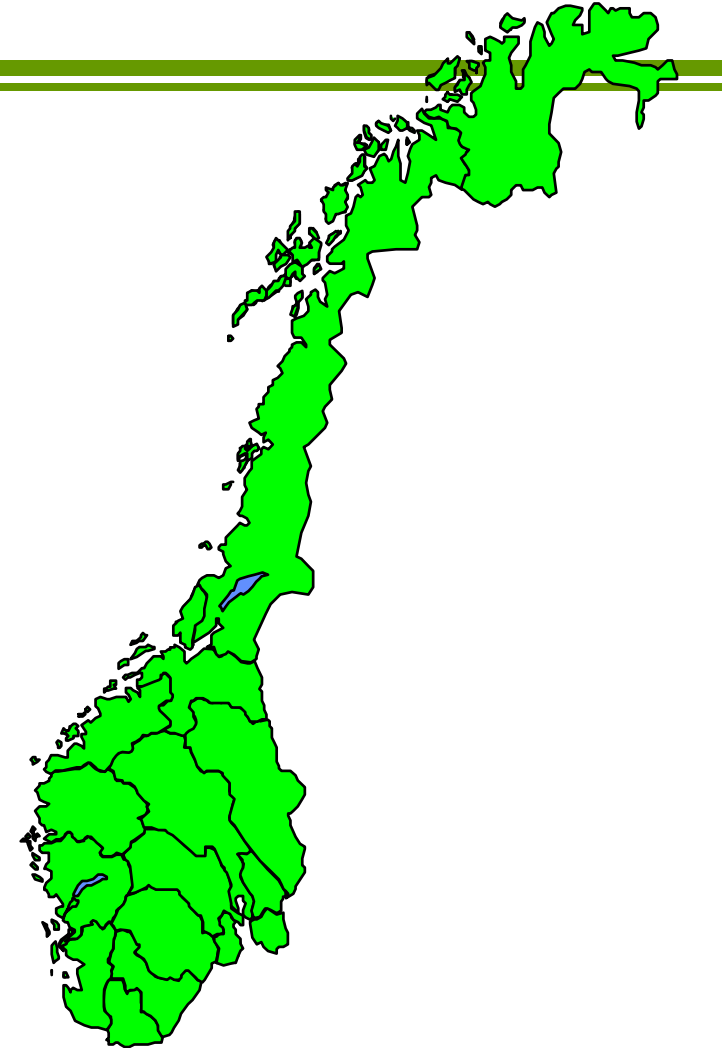

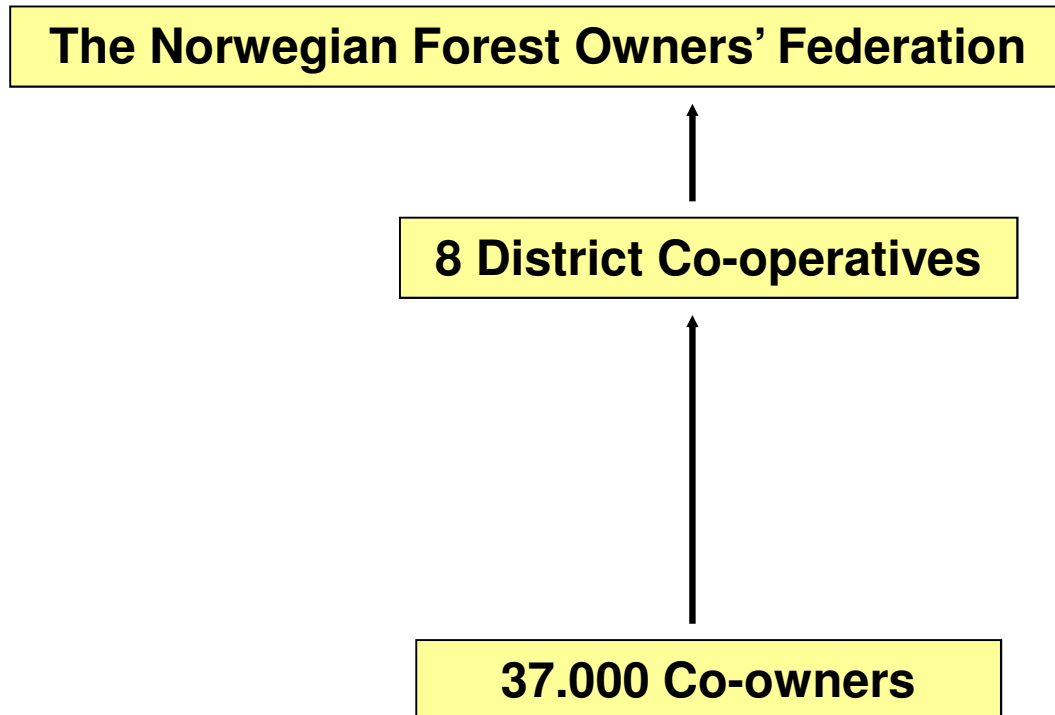

The central office takes care of national and international forestry policy.

Web-pages: www.skog.no and www.nordicforestry.org.

The 8 district co-operatives main tasks are to negotiate timber prices, buy roundwood from the co-owners and sell it to the industry.
